(FOUNDED 1996)

JUNE 2015

THE NOMADS CREED

*"No man is an island entire of itself; every man is a piece of the continent, a part of the main ;
Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind;
And therefore, never send to know for whom the bell tolls;
It tolls for thee"*

from the Meditations of John Donne (1573-1631)

Dear Fellow Lowveld Nomads,

Our choice of venue to host National Chairman Gary Rodwell was certainly the correct one. I collected Gary at the Airport on Saturday afternoon and drove him to Komatipoort — probably one of the finest hidden secrets the Lowveld has to offer. On arrival at the club house Saturday evening we were welcomed by a herd of elephant in the river bed right below the club house, a little further up the river were approximately thirty hippo on a sand bank and not too far from them a handful of buffalo — somewhat special when you are not from the Lowveld.

The Committee were all introduced to the National Chairman at an informal meeting to discuss their various portfolios and any issues they may have, and this was then followed by a typically scrumptious Portuguese meal - Prawns and Peri-peri chicken. To the Committee members who availed themselves of the opportunity to spend the evening in Komatipoort, my sincere thanks for contributing to a great weekend. The golf course, as always was in impeccable condition and a true test of golf as the scores on the day reflected, although our National Chairman seemed to handle it better than most of our members finishing 2nd in his Division..... Well-played Skip!

Obviously good company makes for good golf! We had the pleasure of playing alongside Kambaku's Club Captain on the day, which he enjoyed so much that he indicated his keenness to join what he thinks is a great institution, and that is very encouraging.

To all the lovely ladies who joined their husbands for the weekend, your presence always adds that special scent and happiness to such an occasion and it was lovely to have you all around.

Well done to the committee for ensuring all nomadic duties were correctly done, and I must say the new PINK HAT that the Fines-master now wears certainly attracted some attention, well done Neil for increasing the fines coffers.....

I am told a record!

Our National Chairman was accommodated at

Jorn's Guest House

on Sunday evening at no charge - and for this we are ever grateful.

Thank you Nomad Jorn Goldenbogen.

After leaving Komatipoort Gary and I attended the prize-giving at Nelspruit Golf Club for the Mpumalanga Junior Quad tournament played on the same day. We were extremely overwhelmed by the number of juniors from under-thirteen to under-seventeen who participated on the day - a total of 124 players. A truly lovely experience to hand out medals to the various winners that evening, which Lowveld Nomads sponsored. To Albert Hattingh who joined us, thank you for your presence. In closing, Gentlemen our web-site is up and running. Please forward any information you might have of interest to Albert so he can get it posted onto our web. Hopefully soon we will all be reading about our great Club. Happy golfing

Yours in Nomads,
Neville Blum

Thank you to Nomad Derrick Short for the donation of a good 'gently-used' camera to the club for our use at prize-givings and functions.

It's going to make a huge difference.....

Thank you

Greetings All,

It's always a pleasure to travel to Komati to play Kambaku.....the weather always plays its part and the course is always in great nick. Just a pity that the greenkeeper had a hangover and decided that if he's to suffer, then are all the golfers!! Holes 1, 2 and 3 had "Greenkeeper's Revenge" written all over them. It was the same for all of us I guess, but I think that it reflected in all the scores as well, with not too many of us breaking 30 points.

Great to see Glynbrynth Whisky coming on board for our sponsored tippie but apparently once you've had a few and you can pronounce the name correctly three times in a row, it's time to go home.

By all accounts a good time was had by all at the dinner at Kambaku club on Saturday night—I'm told the prawns and peri-peri chicken was excellent. The National Chairman Gary Rodwell was very gracious in his speech at prize-giving on Sunday, and it looks as though he is very impressed with what we achieve as one of the smaller clubs in the country. It's nice to know that we are doing it right and having to get up at a time when only policemen and prostitutes are working to make this trip so that others can benefit almost makes it worth it.....

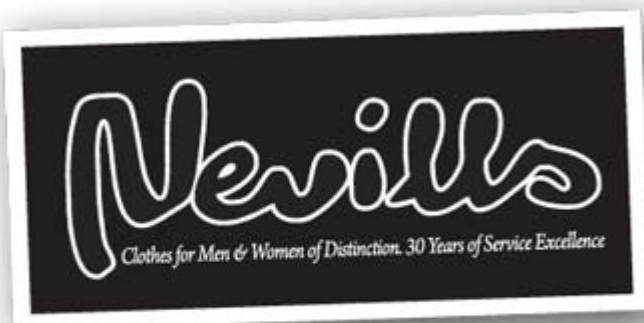

There is a new prize on our prize table! It's for a massage at a parlour in Nelspruit which would go down very well with most of us I'm sureso well done to Arthur Douglass for winning the first-ever!! "Love you long time you Big American Boy" and remember a happy ending there is when she sings to you!

Bruce "Chuck" Norris was in my 4-ball and was telling me that he and Tommy have just retired after many years together at Knittex. Well done guys—I'm sure you'll enjoy your retirement— Enjoy it, you've earned the break.

Lastly, a couple are at the altar about to get married when the grooms turns to his bride and says "Honey before we do this I must just tell you that I am nuts about golf, and I'm going to be playing at every opportunity". His bride says "Well, while we're being honest I must tell you that I'm a hooker". The groom replies "That's OK Honey. You just need to learn to keep your head down and your left arm straight!"

Keep swinging and see you at Malelane

A man is walking along a beach when he comes across a lamp partially buried in the sand. He picks up the lamp and gives it a rub. A genie appears and tells him he has been granted one wish.

The man thinks for a moment and says, "I want to live forever."

"Sorry," said the genie, "I'm not allowed to grant eternal life."

"OK, then, I want to die after the ANC government balances the budget and eliminates the debt.

"You crafty little bastard," said the genie.

SALLY'S SKIP-A-THON

*This is my "out-of-the-box" fund-raising initiative towards our annual Andrew Mentis Day.
The idea came to me one morning whilst training when I wondered how my skipping could possibly help our needy beneficiaries.*

My plan is to skip for a period of time--on the Andrew Mentis day to assist in raising additional funds and I would thus appeal to all you generous folk out there to open your hearts and wallets to help the two worthy beneficiaries chosen for this year--Nelspruit Hospice and Lowveld SPCA Mpumalanga.

I will personally donate R500.00 to this event and ask that each of you donate R100.00 or more to help raise funds. We will be collecting the cash donations at the Starters Table over the next couple of months and I would really appreciate your generous support.

Thanks in anticipation

GLENBRYNTH SCOTCH WHISKY

The story of Glenbrynth Scotch Whisky is not one of those romantic tales of bearded and kilted Highlanders who handed down a legacy of distillation in a tucked away wooded glen, far from the prying eyes of excise men. There are no top-hatted, cane-carrying logos or royal warrants accompanying this brand. But that doesn't mean that the whisky itself is not descended from a historic line, or that it does not have a legacy – because it does.

Ocean Traders International Africa (Pty) Ltd, headed up by their CEO, Brian Nathan, is the worldwide owner of the Glenbrynth brand of Scotch whisky. Only the finest malt and grain are used in the intricate blending of Glenbrynth, which was created by one of the most respected master blenders in the world. The distillery and blending facility, based in Scotland, is part of the Wm. Grant & Sons Group in Scotland, which also produces the internationally famous brands Glenfiddich, Balvenie, and Grant's.

Glenbrynth is matured in oak, sherry and/or port casks, which one can pick up in the fragrances and flavours of the finished whisky. Its quality, unique blend and ultra-smooth distillation make Glenbrynth a magnificent example of the rich Scottish heritage of whisky making.

Glenbrynth's history is a recent one. This premium Scotch whisky range was introduced into the South African market almost four years ago and is now also available in Nigeria, Namibia, Botswana, Mozambique, Swaziland, Zimbabwe, Zambia, Cameroon, Benin, Morocco, Cyprus, Iraq, UAE, Mauritius, Japan, and China.

The Glenbrynth range of Scotch consists of a three-year-old blended Scotch, an eight-year-old pure malt blend, a 12-year-old pure malt blend, a 21-year-old single malt, a 30-year-old blended Scotch and a 40-year-old pure malt blend.

Brian says that it has been interesting to see how people have taken to Glenbrynth. "There's definitely room to grow a new brand, because discerning whisky drinkers are looking for something that is a bit different. One gentleman at a recent tasting said that he is tired of being told what to drink and of seeing the same bottles lined up on every bar shelf. He wanted something more individual, that not everyone else is drinking. He is the kind of person that Glenbrynth is ideal for; a person who appreciates quality and who wants to be part of a new experience in Scotch whisky."
